

Behavioral Health Services

Supporting the Stanislaus community through the COVID-19 crisis

If you have a concern about your mental health or the mental health of a loved one, please call us. You don't have to figure out what to do alone. We can help connect you to the appropriate behavioral health care and/or community supports.

Call (209) 558-4600

- Mental Health & Substance Use Services
- Adult and Children Services
- Available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week

Crisis Support: Mental Health Clinicians provide interventions and support for community members that are experiencing a mental health crisis.

Peer Support: Behavioral health team members, with mental health lived experience, provide access to brief counseling, peer support and referrals to community resources.

COVID-19 Crisis Counseling: Mental Health Clinicians provide crisis counseling for community members experiencing emotional distress due to Covid-19.

If you are interested in learning more about Stanislaus County Behavioral Health and Recovery Services programs, please call 1-888-376-6246 or visit www.stancounty.com/bhrs

Behavioral Health & Recovery Services

Stanislaus County's mental health and substance use services department
Sponsored by the Stanislaus County Board of Supervisors